

James Davey

James Davey is one of this country's most distinguished and respected young choral conductors. In demand across the UK, James conducts the Aylesbury Festival Choir, Guardian's Angels (the choir of the Guardian newspaper) and his award-winning choir Chantage – BBC Radio 3 Choir of the Year 2006. He is also a Choir Trainer for the Royal College of Music Junior Department, Cranleigh Choral Week and the Canford Summer School of Music.

A former choral advisor for the BBC's sheet music archive, James has worked with the BBC Singers as an education practitioner, and is also an Assistant Conductor for the National Youth Choirs of Great Britain.
